Library Professionals Recognized for BIEN! Work

Norice Lee, Doña Ana Branch Community College's director of library services, and Sylvia Ortiz, head of the reference department at New Mexico State University's Branson Library, recently were recognized by the National Institute of Standards and Technology for their work with the Border Health Information and Education Network (BIEN!). Their poster presentation on the BIEN! Project was selected as one of fifty finalists from an international pool.

For further information on the BIEN Project, contact Lee at 527-7556, nlee@lib.nmsu.edu, or Ortiz at 646-7481, sortiz@lib.nmsu.edu.
