

University Library News Release

Date: September 12, 2005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Jeanette Smith, NMSU Library, (505) 646-7492, jcsmith@lib.nmsu.edu

Borderlands Historian to Speak September 22

Walter Brem, an expert in U.S.-Mexican-Latin American history, will present a lecture at 2 p.m. on Thursday, September 22, on the second floor of NMSU's Branson Library.

Brem will lecture on "A Century of Research: Archival and Manuscript Access for Borderlands and Mexican History." The presentation is sponsored by the NMSU Library's department of Archives and Special Collections.

Brem is currently the resources coordinator for the Center for Latin American Studies at the University of Arizona, where he teaches a graduate seminar on Latin American information and research resources. From 1985 to 2004, he was the Latin American Curator at Bancroft Library at the University of California, Berkeley.

The lecture is free and open to the public. For more information, please contact the Archives staff at (505) 646-3839.