Library Announces Haiku Contest Winners

Winning poems have been selected from forty-five haiku entered in the University Library's library haiku contest. The first place winner is Connie Falk, a professor in the Department of Agricultural Economics and Agricultural Business for her haiku "Library dating -- is sexier than beer halls -- You have to whisper." Second place goes to Tami H. Luchini, a student in the College of Health and Social Services, for her haiku "Thomas Jefferson -- 'I can not live without books' -- I said me neither." Honorable mention goes to Jesus J. Barquet, Eddie Torres and Gaea McGahee. The five winning haiku will be published in the next online Library newsletter in February.
