

NMSU Library News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT Jeanette Smith, Library, 646-7492, jcsmith@lib.nmsu.edu

Lesley Mackay Appointed As Development Officer at NMSU

Lesley Mackay

Lesley Mackay has joined the New Mexico State University staff as a Development Officer. The appointment is half time in the University Library and half time in the Graduate School. Ms. Mackay brings to her position over ten years of experience as a development professional and communications specialist. She was trained in development at Johns Hopkins University and has done fundraising work for Rollins College and Embry-Riddle University in Florida. She has also worked as a publicist for United Nations International Women's Day, the Andean Information Network and Amnesty International. Ms. Mackay holds a B.A. in English from the College of William and Mary and an M.A. in English from Indiana University, Bloomington. Ms. Mackay may be contacted at the University Library at 646-3642.