

NMSU Library News Release

Date: October 7, 2004

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Jeanette Smith, NMSU Library, (505) 646-7492, jcsmith@lib.nmsu.edu

“Vanished Landmarks” Calendar Available

A 2005 calendar entitled “Vanished Landmarks of Southern New Mexico,” prepared by the University Library’s Rio Grande Historical Collections, is now available.

Copies of the calendar, which make wonderful gifts, may be purchased at the second-floor offices of Zuhl Library for five dollars each.

The calendar offers haunting glimpses into New Mexico’s past, featuring photographs of landscapes, towns, buildings and other spots that were once significant, but are no longer with us. Washed away by floods, eaten up by mines, blown away, or simply abandoned, these landmarks now exist only in memory, imagination and in the documents and images of the Rio Grande Historical Collections.

For more information, please contact Esther Ramirez at (505) 646-1508 or esramire@lib.nmsu.edu.