Department Annual Report for Reference and Research Services
July 01, 2004 to June 30, 2005
Submitted by Cindy Pierard

Major Accomplishments:

- Organizational
  - In partnership with other Library staff, merged Branson and Zuhl reference collections and established a central reference service point in Zuhl Library. Centralized staff offices in Zuhl as of May 2005.
  - Collaborated with Access Services staff to redesign Branson Circulation Desk as an Information Desk. Developed service parameters and preliminary training modules.

- Personnel
  - All staff position descriptions written prior to 2001 were reviewed and revised to reflect current responsibilities. Both staff positions in the Government Documents Unit were reclassified as a result.
  - Debi Allen, Library Specialist II, Government Documents Unit, resigned from the department, October 2004.
  - Jan Hylen, Reference & Research Services/Education Librarian, left the department, May 2005.
  - Mavis Johnson joined the department as Library Specialist II, Government Documents Unit, December 2004.
  - Kate Manuel, Instruction Coordinator, resigned from the department, December 2004.

- Programs
  - Collection Development: Developed online “toolbox” for collection assessment; completed review of standing orders and microformats to align collections with current teaching and research needs, resulting in savings of ca. $43,000; completed work on 2002 GO Bond project by sending each proposal team thank you letters and spreadsheets on title information and availability; developed policy statement on the collection development program and on the role of the program coordinator and participants; developed and strengthened consortial collection development partnerships through AARLNM; developed proposal for upcoming serials review.
  - Government Documents/Maps: Supported Unit and department staff by offering reference training sessions and print/online documentation; enhanced online catalog access to government information by including URLs for electronic records and integrating MARCIVE records for older titles; integrated management of map collection; increased access to documents collection by clarifying and expanding circulation policies; increased outreach to the New Mexico documents community through participation in meetings and hosting depository library staff from the University of New Mexico and the University of Texas at El Paso.
  - Instruction: Developed statement on the instruction program and on the role of the program coordinator and participants; developed classroom renovation plan; received approval for two new courses, LSC 301 and LSC 111.
  - Reference: Consolidated collection/service points in Zuhl Library and centralized staff; prepared collection development statement for reference collection; conducted four experiments in providing “satellite” reference services (Hylen, Ortiz, Mahaffy, Watkins); analyzed reference service patterns and adjusted services in response.

- Strategic Goals/Targets
  - Redefine circulation desks as information desks
  - Create collection development group “toolbox”
  - Reconfigure Zuhl and Branson classrooms
  - Reconfigure reference desk area

Trends/Issues:

- Collection Development – Reshape materials budget to meet current and emerging teaching and research programs within available means; undertake serials review; participate in research clusters; continue collection assessment efforts.
- Instruction – Expand discipline-specific instruction; continue assessment efforts; explore alternative methods and modes of instruction (online instruction, partnering with teaching faculty on instructional design, etc.).
- Government Documents/Maps – Survey University community to inform service and collection development plans for maps and GIS; continue review of documents collection; stay abreast of national trends with the FDLP.
- Reference – Build understanding of usage of and satisfaction with reference services and resources; implement new model of reference statistics.
