Finding Books on your Topic in the Catalog

Start with a Combine Keywords search

The screenshot shows a library catalog search interface. At the top, there are three tabs: "Author/Title/Subject", "Combine Keywords", and "Course Reserve". The "Combine Keywords" tab is active. Below the tabs, there are three search rows. Each row has a "Search for:" field, a "as a phrase" dropdown, and a "Search in:" dropdown. The first row has "renaissance" in the search field and "Keyword Anywhere (GKEY)" in the search in dropdown. The second row has "italy" in the search field and "Keyword Anywhere (GKEY)" in the search in dropdown. The third row has "music" in the search field and "Keywo" in the search in dropdown. Between the search rows, there are radio buttons for "AND", "OR", and "NOT", with "AND" selected. At the bottom of the search area, there is a "10 records per page" dropdown, a "Search" button, and a "Reset" button. A pop-up window on the right shows the record for "Ars nova and the Renaissance, 1300-1540". The record includes the title, author (Hughes, Anselm, 1889-1974), title (Ars nova and the Renaissance, 1300-1540. Edited by Anselm Hughes Airdham), and subject headings: Music: 500-1400. History and criticism; Music: 15th century. History and criticism; Music: 16th century. History and criticism.

Then look for appropriate subject headings.
