
A works-cited list in MLA style is organized alphabetically by the first word in each citation. After the first line, indent all subsequent lines one half inch from the left margin. All citations should be double spaced. Capitalize the important words in the title, and italicize the main title in the citation. Include the full name of the author (e.g., Katz, William A.) and the shortened form of the publisher (e.g., Oxford UP).

PARENTHETICAL DOCUMENTATION

- Cite the author’s last name and page(s) cited.
  EXAMPLE: (Tinker 2)

- For two or three authors, provide all names in the order listed on the title page.
  EXAMPLE: (Tinker, Evers, and Chance 24)

- If citing more than three authors, give the first author’s last name followed by et al. with no other punctuation.
  EXAMPLE: (Lennon et al. 9)

- If your works cited list contains more than one author with the same last names, you must add the authors’ first initial.
  EXAMPLE: (G. Marx) (K. Marx)

- If the source you’re citing doesn’t have an author, use a shortened version of the title, making sure to include the first word that it’s alphabetized by in the Works Cited list.
  EXAMPLE: (Primary Colors 43)

MLA – SEVENTH EDITION

MLA made the following changes from the 6th edition.

- Include the medium of publication in every works cited entry (ex. Print, Web.)
- Italicize rather than underline titles of books and journals.
- Include the issue number in every journal citation.
- Don’t list state or country abbreviations after the publishing city.
- Don’t include information about the Library supplying access to a fee database.
- Don’t include the URL unless required by the instructor to do so.
