Gifts of Senator Pete V. Domenici and wife Nancy Domenici

Revised 12.6.2017
Biographical Note: Pete V. Domenici was born as Pietro Vichi Domenici to Italian immigrant parents in Albuquerque, New Mexico on May 7, 1932. The second-youngest of five children, Domenici graduated from St. Mary’s High School in Albuquerque in 1950 and received a Bachelor’s degree in education from the University of New Mexico in 1954. Following his graduation, Domenici spent time playing baseball for the Albuquerque Dukes and then taught at Garfield Junior High in Albuquerque. Domenici completed a law degree from the University of Denver Law School in 1958, and began practicing law in his home town. That year he also married Nancy Burk. They have eight children.

In 1966 Domenici successfully ran for a position on the Albuquerque City Commission and became the Commission Chairperson in 1968, which was the equivalent of becoming mayor of the city. In 1970 Domenici legally changed his name to Pete and ran unsuccessfully as the Republican candidate for governor against Bruce King. In 1972 Domenici defeated Jack Daniels in the election to replace Clinton P. Anderson in the United States Senate. He would be re-elected five times, in 1978, 1984, 1990, 1996, and 2002, becoming the longest-serving Senator in New Mexico history. Domenici announced his retirement from the Senate prior to the 2008 election. Following retirement, Domenici worked at the Bipartisan Policy Center.

During his time in the United States Senate, Domenici primarily served on the Budget, Appropriations, and Energy and Natural Resources Committee. Domenici was the senior Republican member of the Budget Committee from 1981 to 2003 and the senior Republican on the Energy and Natural Resources Committee from 2003 to his retirement. Domenici’s role on the Budget Committee meant that he played an important role in national debates over the budget, as well as positioning himself to steer Federal money towards New Mexico. For this latter part, Domenici gained the nickname of “St. Pete” within the state of New Mexico.

After retiring from the Senate, Domenici worked for the Bipartisan Policy Center in Washington D.C. until 2016. Following his departure, Domenici returned to Albuquerque. Domenici passed away there on September 13, 2017.

Scope and Content: The Legislative Series is the largest single series in the Pete V. Domenici Papers. This series contains documents and materials directly related to Domenici’s legislative activities as a Senator, including the drafting of legislation, research, negotiations with other legislators, and testimony that would be made on the Senate floor. It is divided into a number of subseries based on subject and the subseries are arranged alphabetically within the collection.

The Agriculture Subseries consists of 6 boxes covering 7.5 linear feet, the contents of which are arranged alphabetically by subject. Highlights of this subseries include material related to the 1974 World Food Conference in Rome, which Senator Domenici attended, as well as documents related to the drafting of the Farm Bill, a periodic piece of legislation which outlines and adjusts the agriculture and food policy of the United States.

The Commerce Subseries consists of 8 boxes covering 10 linear feet, the contents of which are arranged alphabetically by subject. Highlights of this subseries include the Senator’s efforts to help stimulate economic development with New Mexico, including through the Joint Economic Development Initiative (JEDI). Another strong focus area is the Senator’s efforts to work with small businesses in the state.

The Defense Subseries consists of 18 boxes covering 22.5 linear feet, the contents of which are arranged alphabetically by subject. This subseries focuses heavily on Domenici’s involvement with defense appropriations, and his efforts to support the Department of Defense’s presence in the state at Cannon, Holloman, and Kirtland Air Force Bases, as well as the White Sands Missile Range. This includes the Senator’s successful efforts to keep both Cannon and Kirtland open during the Base Realignment and Closure cycles of the 1990s and 2000s.

The Energy Subseries consists of 18 boxes covering 22.5 linear feet and is arranged alphabetically by subject. The subseries covers Senator Domenici’s involvement with the energy industry in the country. Highlights of this collection are those materials related to the Department of Energy’s national laboratories, nuclear power, and the oil and gas industry. All of these fields were of considerable interest to the Senator as they had a heavy impact on the New Mexico economy. Senator Domenici’s involvement with the Senate’s Energy and Natural Resources committee is also partially documented in this subseries.

The Finance Subseries consists of 25 boxes covering 31.25 linear feet, the contents of which are arranged alphabetically by subject. This subseries covers the role played by Senator Domenici in... the United States’ tax, trade, and welfare policy. While the Senator never sat on the Senate Finance Committee, its activities had a strong impact on the Budget and Appropriations Committees, both of counted Domenici as a long-time member. Of particular interest to researchers would be the documents and materials related to tax reform, particularly Domenici’s efforts alongside Georgia Senator Sam Nunn to replace the income tax with a consumption tax in order to promote savings by individual Americans. Domenici’s involvement in US-Canadian trade, which had major implications for New Mexico, is also a strong part of the subseries.

The Foreign Affairs Subseries consists of 4 boxes covering 5 linear feet, the contents of which are arranged alphabetically by subject. This subseries highlights Senator Domenici’s involvement in the country’s foreign policy and interaction with other countries. This subseries includes extensive documentation on Domenici’s involvement in nuclear non-proliferation during the 1990s, under the Nunn-Lugar-Domenici nuclear weapons dismantlement legislation.

The Health Subseries consists of 14 boxes covering 17.5 linear feet and is arranged alphabetically by subject. This subseries covers the Senator Domenici’s involvement with health legislation in this country, including Medicare reform and other health care reform pushes. Of greatest prominence in these papers are the documents related to the treatment of mental health, as this was a very important issue for Domenici. Also of interest to researchers would be those documents and materials related to genetic privacy legislation, which resulted from Domenici’s interest in the Human Genome Project.

The Science and Technology Subseries consists of 5 boxes covering 6.25 linear feet and is arranged alphabetically by subject. This subseries covers Senator Domenici’s efforts to support the United States’ science and technology efforts, particularly in regards to the state of New Mexico. One of the major components of this subseries are those materials related to the Human Genome Project, an effort to map the human genome that was spearheaded by the Senator. Another highlight of this subseries is those materials related to the development of the New Mexico Spaceport in the White Sands region of the state.

The Veterans Affairs Subseries consists of 2 boxes covering 2.5 linear feet and is arranged alphabetically by subject. This subseries covers Senator Domenici’s involvement with veteran’s issues. Of chief importance in this subseries are those documents and reports related to the VA Hospital in Albuquerque and efforts to provide benefits and assistance to those service personnel who were impacted by exposure to nuclear radiation.

The Press Series consists of 157 boxes covering 157 linear feet and is arranged chronologically. This series contains both news releases from Senator Domenici and his office, as well as the daily press briefing packets that he and his office received.
